What is Justice Reinvestment?

A data-driven approach to reduce corrections spending and reinvest savings in strategies that can decrease recidivism and increase public safety

The Justice Reinvestment Initiative is supported by funding from the U.S. Department of Justice’s Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) and The Pew Charitable Trusts
Justice reinvestment includes a two-part process spanning analysis, policy development, and implementation

Georgia’s recent history with criminal justice reform

If we did nothing...
- Projected Prison Growth of 8% by 2016
  - 57K to almost 60K
- Additional $264 million to expand capacity

Other drivers...
- In 2010, more than 5,000 low-risk drug and property offenders were sentenced to the Department of Corrections, accounting for 25% of all admissions
- Pew’s 1 in 30 Report—Georgia ranked last with 1 in 13

Four Reform Packages

- 2012
  - Adult Sentencing Reform

- 2013
  - Juvenile Justice Reform/Code Rewrite

- 2014
  - Offender Reentry

- 2015
  - Misdemeanor Probation Reform
Georgia’s reform efforts have involved substantial legislative and executive/administrative efforts.

Legislative
- Changed the felony threshold for burglary, theft, and forgery from $500 to $1,500
- Moved to weight-based drug sentencing
- Mandated the electronic submission of sentence from clerk of court to Department of Corrections
- Establishment of mandatory minimum “safety valves”
  - Drug trafficking if certain specific provisions are met
  - “Truth in pleading”
- Certificates of program and treatment completion
  - Presumption of due care in hiring, retaining, licensing, leasing to or admitting to a school program
- Conditional drivers’ licenses for accountability court participants
- Expanded parole eligibility for nonviolent drug recidivists
- Creation of administrative probation

Executive/Administrative
- Capped length of stay in Probation Detention Centers (PDCs) at 180 days
  - Enabled conversion of underutilized PDCs to Residential Substance Abuse Treatment beds
- Automation of pre-sentence assessments
- Pre-release center conversions
- Day Reporting Center Lite Pilot Program
  - Creative solution for rural areas
- Probation Options Management (POM)
  - Matching the appropriate supervision level to the offender
- Appropriations—to date, over $65 million in new state appropriations
  - $20 million++ per year for expanding and strengthening accountability courts
  - Combination of $5 million (state) and $1 million (federal) per year for local juvenile justice incentive grants
  - $10 million per year for education (technical and GED) in Department of Corrections
  - $3 million per year for reentry services at Department of Community Supervision
Georgia experienced a decrease in the state prison population in recent years.

Georgia Department of Corrections Population and Projections, FY-end 2011–2020

GDC population had grown 21% from 2000–2011

GDC population was projected to grow 8% from 2011–2016

The most recent prison population projection anticipates only 2% growth over the next five years.

While Georgia’s crime rates have decreased steadily since 2008, the overall crime rate ranks the 8th-highest in the U.S.

Georgia has recently expanded judicial discretion in relation to mandatory minimum sentencing, primarily for drug purchase and possession offenses.

2012

HB 1176
- Gave Superior Court judges more discretion in sentencing drug purchase and possession offenses
- Repealed sentencing enhancement for a second drug possession offense

2013

HB 349
- Judge may depart from the mandatory minimum sentence for offenses related to trafficking in cocaine, illegal drugs, marijuana, or methamphetamine and ecstasy if:
  - Defendant was not a leader of the criminal conduct
  - Criminal conduct did not result in death or a serious bodily injury to another person
  - Defendant has no prior felony conviction
  - Interest of justice will not be served by the imposition of the prescribed mandatory minimum sentence
- For certain serious violent offenses, the judge may depart from the mandatory minimum sentence when the prosecuting attorney and the defendant have agreed to a sentence that is below such mandatory minimum

2016

SB 367
- Allows some people serving drug-related mandatory minimum sentences to be eligible for parole

§17-10-7 Punishment of repeat offenders; punishment and eligibility for parole of persons convicted of fourth felony offense

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or (b.1) of this Code section, any person who, after having been convicted of a felony offense in this state or having been convicted under the laws of any other state or of the United States of a crime which if committed within this state would be a felony and sentenced to confinement in a penal institution, commits a felony punishable by confinement in a penal institution shall be sentenced to undergo the longest period of time prescribed for the punishment of the subsequent offense of which he or she stands convicted, provided that, unless otherwise provided by law, the trial judge may, in his or her discretion, probate or suspend the maximum sentence prescribed for the offense.

(b) (1) As used in this subsection, the term "serious violent felony" means a serious violent felony as defined in subsection (a) of Code Section 17-10-6.1.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (e) of Code Section 17-10-6.1, any person who has been convicted of a serious violent felony in this state or who has been convicted under the laws of any other state or of the United States of a crime which if committed in this state would be a serious violent felony and who after such first conviction subsequently commits and is convicted of a serious violent felony for which such person is not sentenced to death shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life without parole. Any such sentence of life without parole shall not be suspended, stayed, probated, deferred, or withheld, and any such person sentenced pursuant to this paragraph shall not be eligible for any form of pardon, parole, or early release administered by the State Board of Pardons and Paroles or for any earned time, early release, work release, leave, or any other sentence-reducing measures under programs administered by the Department of Corrections, the effect of which would be to reduce the sentence of life imprisonment without possibility of parole, except as may be authorized by any existing or future provisions of the Constitution.

(b.1) Subsections (a) and (c) of this Code section shall not apply to a second or any subsequent conviction for any violation of subsection (a), paragraph (1) of subsection (i), or subsection (j) of Code Section 16-13-30.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or (b.1) of this Code section and subsection (b) of Code Section 42-9-45, any person who, after having been convicted under the laws of this state for three felonies or having been convicted under the laws of any other state or of the United States of three crimes which if committed within this state would be felonies, commits a felony within this state shall, upon conviction for such fourth offense or for subsequent offenses, serve the maximum time provided in the sentence of the judge based upon such conviction and shall not be eligible for parole until the maximum sentence has been served.

(d) For the purpose of this Code section, conviction of two or more crimes charged on separate counts of one indictment or accusation, or in two or more indictments or accusations consolidated for trial, shall be deemed to be only one conviction.

(e) This Code section is supplemental to other provisions relating to recidivist offenders.

§16-13-30 Purchase, possession, manufacture, distribution, or sale of controlled substances or marijuana; penalties

(a) Except as authorized by this article, it is unlawful for any person to purchase, possess, or have under his or her control any controlled substance.

Subsection (b) addresses manufacture/delivery
Subsection (c) stipulates weight-based penalties for purchase/possession, Schedule I
Subsection (d) stipulates penalties for manufacture/delivery, Schedules I or II
Subsection (e) stipulates weight-based penalties for purchase/possession, Schedule II
Subsection (f) stipulates mandatory imprisonment (capped at twice the length of underlying crime) for third or subsequent
Subsection (g) stipulates penalty for purchase/possession, Schedules III - V
Subsection (h) stipulates penalty for manufacture/delivery, Schedules III - V

(i) (1) Except as authorized by this article, it is unlawful for any person to possess or have under his or her control a counterfeit substance. Any person who violates this paragraph shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than two years.

(j) (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, have under his or her control, manufacture, deliver, distribute, dispense, administer, purchase, sell, or possess with intent to distribute marijuana.
(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of Code Section 16-13-31 or in Code Section 16-13-2, any person who violates this subsection shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than ten years.

Subsection (k) addresses hiring others to facilitate violations of drug laws, stipulates penalty
Subsection (l) stipulates weight-based penalties for purchase/possession of flunitrazepam specifically
Subsection (m) defines solid substance

Subsection (b.1) of §17-10-7 removes drug purchase and possession offenses from the implications of recidivist sentencing.

- 94% of FY2014 property admissions of recidivists were split sentences, up from 87% split sentences for this group in FY2010.
- 86% of FY2014 drug sales and possession admissions of recidivists were split sentences, nearly the same as the proportion in FY2010 (87%).

Source: CSG Analysis of Inmate Research Data File, June 2016
Sentence lengths for straight sentences to prison for drug recidivists are considerably shorter than the prison portion of split sentences.

Source: CSG Analysis of Inmate Research Data File, June 2016

Property recidivists with straight prison sentences had similar prison sentence lengths as those with split sentences.

Drug recidivists with straight prison sentence had 10-year sentence lengths.

But the prison portion for those with splits had 19-year prison sentences.
Georgia has a large and growing number of people in or admitted to prison with a split sentence

- As of May 2016, 73.5% of standing population has a split sentence, with probation supervision to follow release.

Proportion of Inmates Admitted to Prison with Split Sentence, FY2011-2015

- FY2011: 66%
- FY2012: 75%
- FY2013: 81%
- FY2014: 83%
